Do you think autumn's late this year? That's how it seems to me. That long, cold spell has set things back, especially all our trees. For autumn shades we've had to wait, but now a just reward. Fantastic colours along the hedges and woodland fringes, where the beautiful, bright yellows of the field maples complement the browns and golds of the other deciduous trees and shrubs. Shining through are the vivid red haws, and the hips and berries of the dog and guelder roses – wonderful – a banquet awaits the arrival of the fieldfares and redwings as they fly in from Scandinavia.

Now that the numerous fields of maize have been harvested and, once more we can see across the farmland, we have been treated to the spectacle of the thousands of wild geese as they fly in from the marsh to feed on the stubble. They come with their loud, continuous chatter which continues once on the ground. The geese, mainly pinkfeet, are often joined by a few whooper swans as well as several Canada's and some grey lags.

In a few short years they have adapted to their 'new' bounteous food source and have learned to find the same larders each year. Recent exceptional sunrises and sunsets have also added to nature's spectacle.

When we consider all the problems and disasters that are affecting so many places in the world, we must count ourselves really lucky that we live in such a pleasant area.

This is the last magazine of the year. We have tried to keep producing throughout lockdown. My thanks to our clerk, Mrs Arnold, for setting out, to Pearl and to all our advertisers for their support, and to all other contributors.

If you would like to make a contribution towards production costs it would be much appreciated. May I wish you all a happy Christmas and a successful New Year.

A Christmas Prayer

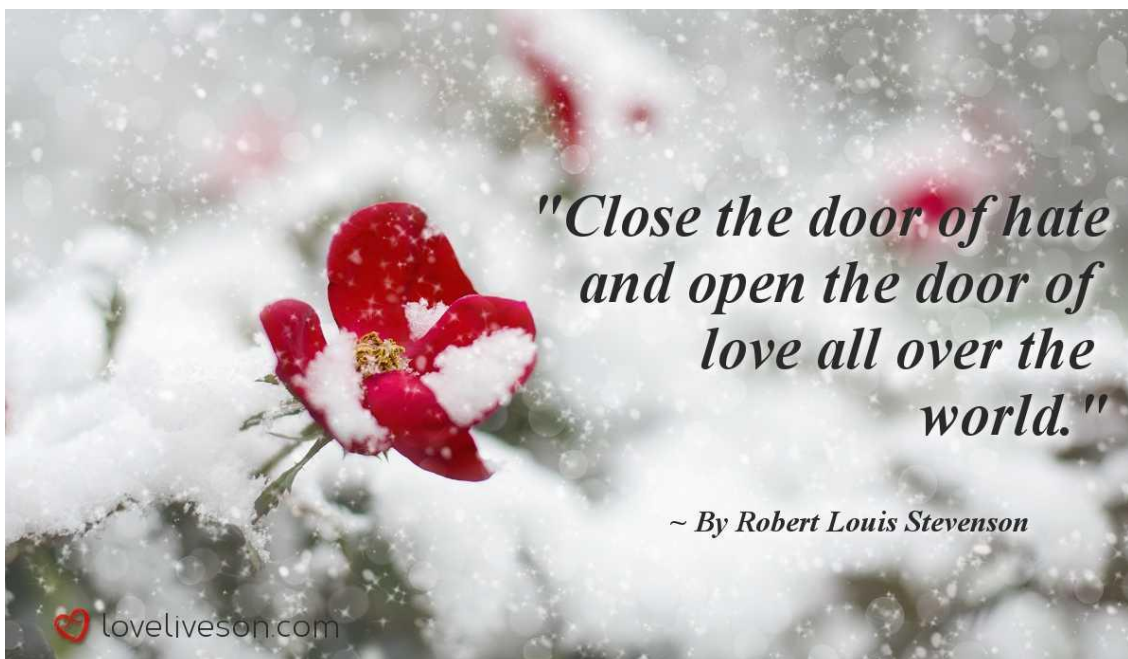

By Robert Louis Stevenson

Loving Father,
help us remember the birth of Jesus,
that we may share in the song of the angels,
the gladness of the shepherds,
and worship of the wise men.

Close the door of hate
and open the door of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift
and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil by the blessing
which Christ brings,
and teach us to be merry with clear hearts.

May the Christmas morning
make us happy to be thy children,
and Christmas evening bring us to our beds
with grateful thoughts,
forgiving and forgiven,
for Jesus' sake.

Amen.

*"Close the door of hate
and open the door of love all over the world."*

~ By Robert Louis Stevenson

The Magic of Christmas

Christmas! Frosty air brings a longing for snow, mulled wine, mince pies and carols;
traditions from long ago ...

Christmas! Food festivals and fairs.
Victorian dressed stall-holders
selling their wares ...

Christmas! Decorated trees and holly boughs;
people rushing here and there,
then pausing to reflect and care ...

Christmas! Twinkling lights; magical atmosphere.
Lunches and laughter with friends,
making plans for the coming year ...

Christmas! It's finally here!
Santa's been to Planet Earth
... and we all remember a miraculous birth ...

The Wrangle & District Branch of the Royal British Legion
will hold a meeting on the 12 December 2021
at the Bricklayers Arms, Old Leake
at 7.00pm

There is a possibility this could be the AGM and could be the deciding factor in a decision to close the Branch after 83 years.

If we can get new members that are willing to accept the aims of what the Royal British Legion stand for and bring new ideas and strength to the committee.

You do not have to have served in the armed forces to join the British Legion

There is a cost of £18.00 per year from the date you join. This will enable you to join/attend meetings at four Branches with just one membership payment. (The only extra payment would be a Branch administration fee, if a Branch has one.)

Owing to ill health, for some, and getting on in years, for others, some current members are finding it hard to continue to attend the meetings or to help with fund raising.

Meetings are held once a month on the second Sunday at the Bricklayers Arms at 7.00pm.

If you are considering attending the December meeting could you please let me know in advance?

This is not essential, but would be helpful.
