Items for the parish news need to be sent to wranglepc@aol.com by the 14th of the previous month

We've now just gone past the 'proper' first day of Spring, the vernal equinox, when the sun will be vertically overhead at the equator at noon. What a lovely season, with the first flowers in full bloom and the blackthorn in blossom along with other early shrubs. The rooks are already at their nests, mallards are paired and choosing the dyke to make their nest in. All the birds are wearing their very best outfits and the first bright green leaves are bursting out on the hedges. The dry winter and long settled spell has allowed vegetable planting to begin and prospects look encouraging.

How fortunate we are to live in this wonderful area, with beautiful skies, fertile soils and, despite the multitude of potholes, few problems with getting about.

We must think ourselves very lucky, but spare a thought for those poor folk in Ukraine who, having done nothing wrong, are being subjected to the terrible onslaught of the Russian armed forces. In these modern times there can be no legitimate reason for any nation to wage war on their neighbour.

It is a very difficult situation, but we must give what help and support we can as well as praying for a resolution ASAP.

I must now prepare for New Leake School's visit to our conservation areas tomorrow.

George Danby

Loving Neighbours as Ourselves.

With Spring giving signs of new life and hope, and with the relaxing of COVID restrictions the world has now been plunged into another crisis in Ukraine.

The people of Ukraine have been trying to get on with an unreasonable neighbour. They had tried to do all their neighbour had asked of them to keep peace. They had not joined the European Union or NATO just as their neighbour had asked. Yet they now find their people, including children, the sick and the elderly, being indiscriminately murdered and their homes destroyed forcing people to flee their homes to safety as a reward for trying to live in peace with their neighbour.

We appear to have been financing such deeds through choosing to purchase cheaper fossil fuels rather than making ourselves self-sufficient on the energy sources available in our own water rich land with wind and sun. We perhaps need to be wiser in our use of money and whilst we may suffer in the short term with the price of energy, we still have far more than the Ukrainian people no longer have. We can be thankful in counting our blessings

At the end of Romans 12 vs 21 says 21 Do not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good". We have seen so much good in the response of ordinary people both here and in the nations surrounding the Ukraine being generous with help, hospitality and love that is both inspiring and immediate. In the face of evil we find hope. They have the compassion mindset of acting in the same way we ourselves would like to be treated in the same circumstances. The encouragement "To love our neighbours as ourselves "

Jesus also encouraged people to love and yet those in power had him killed in a most public and brutal way even though no criminal charge could be substantiated. In the face evil Jesus faced evil head on with compassion and love with the knowledge that those who bring the evils of suffering and death will perish. In just three days Jesus demonstrated that those unjust and evil deeds were overcome.

God word's to Joshua were "to be strong and of good courage, obey God and do not fear for God is with you wherever you go". I am reminded of Moses bringing God's message to Pharaoh to Let God's people. Whilst Pharaoh stubbornly tried to out-wit God, in the end, and after much unnecessary suffering of his people, Pharaoh is unable to stand against the mighty acts of God. Maybe we need to show the same faith and trust in God today as God's people did then.

Let us join in powerful prayer for the people of the Ukraine and pray for a mighty miracle to overcome the current evils with something good. And may we discern how we can be people of faith hope, love and action in our troubled world.

At Easter Christ overcame injustice and death and brought new life. May we all put our faith in him and overcome the evil we face with good. May we bless others by loving our neighbours (near and far) as ourselves and may God deliver us from evil. and bless the powerful acts of love

Wrangle Village Platinum Jubilee Street Party

To celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, the village will be holding a Street Party similar to the event held in 2012 for the Diamond Jubilee.

The organising committee held its first meeting on Friday 11 March at the Angel Inn and has started to collect ideas to make the event a special day for the village to remember.

The outline plan is for a street party for the children and live music and BBQ for the adults outside the Parish Hall on Sunday 05 June starting about lunchtime.

If you would like to help with organising this event then please get in touch with Jon Hooper by email on contact@wranglejubilee.org or drop him a text message on 07956 107573.

The next committee meeting will be held on Friday 25 March 25 at 6.30pm in the Angel Inn Pub.

We also need help from local businesses to sponsor the Jubilee Street Party to try to make this a free event for the residents of the Parish and their families, so if you would be interested in helping sponsor the occasion please also get in touch.

Evil Personified

A cold, calculating man with piercing eyes has cast a cloak of darkness over Ukraine.
Normal everyday lives have been snatched away;
millions of people too terrified to stay.
Heart-breaking images of lives torn apart
by a man crazy for power.
A man with no heart.

Bewildered children peer out from train windows;
mothers, trying to stay strong, hold them tight...
Husbands, partners, fathers and brothers stay behind;
in a scene straight from Hell they bravely fight.
The Ukrainian leader pleads. They need help, fast!
Possible solutions mean a world-wide threat.
The world looks on, aghast.

Ukraine is in our hearts and minds;
the character of its people shining through.
Innate decency shedding light
over the darkness that has descended, imposed by a man whose soul it seems
can never be healed or mended.
Evil personified!
