Apart from the drought, the summer of 2022 will long be remembered as one of the best. Now we are into autumn and the good weather seems to be continuing. It has been an easier year for farming, and one when muddy roads haven't been much of a problem. The recent Hunter's moon has brought some fine high tides with amazing sunrises across the Wash. Sadly, I've not seen many shipping movements so trade must be slow at Boston docks.

The new village sign and Platinum Jubilee bench have been installed and are well received.

The grey geese, which arrive every autumn from Iceland, have moved down from Scotland and we hear them daily, as they fly in from the marsh, to feed in the fields. We see plenty of the white little egrets these days, but a first for me was the cattle egret that I watched carefully picking flies from the face of a resting cow. A similar bird but a yellow bill rather than black.

The trees now look splendid in their autumn colours, especially the field maples, splashes of really bright yellow. Ploughing and drilling are now going on apace, whilst potato lifting continues in almost perfect conditions.

George Danby

Wrangle & District Branch of the Royal British Legion

The Boston Steam and Vintage Festival committee have had many successful years but sadly their work has come to an end, so they have decided to share out the money they fundraised. The committee of the Wrangle & District RBL branch were delighted to receive a kind donation from the festival committee at a recent branch meeting. The money will ensure the branch continues to support current serving personnel, veterans and their families in the local area.

If you need our support please contact 0808 802 8080

New branch members are always welcome to help support our fundraising activities. You don't have to have any connection to the Armed Forces and we welcome youth members (under 18) as well.

Our next meeting is at 7.00pm on 27 November at the Bricklayers Arms

Our Village

Walking to church on Sunday mornings,
'neath trees with cawing birds,
a sense of belonging was always felt that's hard to put into words...

Our village school was a haven;
Chapel Sunday school a must.
We cycled to the Youth Club,
ignoring rain and windy gust.

Over a tiny wooden bridge,
next to Baz Berry's shop,
delicious fish and chips were served;
locals often used to stop...

'Jive sessions' in the village hall
were planned with teens in mind.
The Rev'd Jenkins would also attend.
He was cheerful, 'smiley' and kind.

Visiting Wrangle Marsh,
later in the year,
meant freedom when the tide was out
but the creeks still held some fear...

Gathering Samphire always appealed;
it was thoroughly rinsed and
cooked.
It's still as delicious today
but sometimes overlooked.

Wrangle today is different,
yet Wrangle is the same;
almost everyone who lives here
are so very pleased they came!

WRANGLE VILLAGE SIGN - explained

The ship: Wrangle once had a harbour, about half a mile south of the church.

King John's navy had trouble controlling sea traffic on the east coast. He asked all the ports on this coast to provide what ships and men they could to help out.

Wrangle provided a ship and eight men, as did Wainfleet, and London just managed to do the same. King John, in recognition of this, granted Wrangle a Saturday Market Charter dated 1st August 1205. This is still live!

The marquee: recognises the Show Committee's contribution, first suggesting the sign then helping with design, ordering and funding.

Wrangle has had a village show on and off since the late 1800's, starting firstly as more of a ploughing match. There have been several breaks due to the World Wars, the Foot & Mouth outbreak and, more recently, the Covid outbreak.

Wrangle Show, in its current format, was revived after the Queens Silver Jubilee celebrations in 1977. Fundraising events, such as jumble sales, cheese and wine evenings were held and the show was revived in 1978 by quite a large committee of local people.

One of the first Lincolnshire Shows was held in Wrangle.

There have been many different aspects to the show since its revival; at one time there was a Wrangle Beauty Queen (some of whom still live in the village), grass track cycle racing (the Pembleton family have competed at the show), tug of war, poultry and goat shows, local schools decorated trailer competition, 10 mile road race, rural crafts marquee and lots more.

The committee like to put something back into the village and have, over the years, donated money to village organisations, bought and maintain the defibrillator on the front of the Parish Hall.

The mill: The black mill is Toft Mill and a short distance to the southeast is Wrangle Mill.

Wildfowling was an important occupation in the area – though the Canada geese depicted are the manufacturer's choice.

The Church, of course, stands proud as the centrepiece and is our oldest building.

The Ploughman, with his shire horse depicts farming, the main occupation in the parish, and the display of vegetables and cereals emphasises the supreme quality of the wonderful fertile soil in our village. The 'toft' land is unsurpassed anywhere.

Stop for a while and admire the craftsmanship, and perhaps have a rest on the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee bench, located nearby.

A campaign card for Matt Warman MP. On the left, there is a list of contact information with icons: a house for the address (63 Wide Bargate, Boston, Lincolnshire PE21 6SG), a telephone for the number (01205 809110), a speech bubble for the Twitter handle (@parliament.uk), a globe for the website (mattwarman.co.uk), and a ballot box for the campaign name (Warmanfor BostonSkegness). In the center is a portrait of Matt Warman, a man in a suit and tie. To the right of the portrait, the name 'MATT WARMAN MP' is written in large, bold, white capital letters. Below the name, the slogan 'Serving the people of Boston and Skegness' is written in a white cursive font. In the background, there is a faint crest or coat of arms.
