Finally the rain seems to have taken pity on us, and the welcome sun and drying winds have changed the outlook in very short time. Some soils, having had their structure destroyed, may well now be 'baked' and will need more rain to soften them or their ability to withhold moisture will be lost.

At last we have been able to get some spring drilling done although, like many others, it has been necessary to leave 'wet holes' and skirt round them. At least we haven't had the misfortune to re-drill and, for some, a second time.

Mid-April and all our cattle are still in the yards. There's a real flush of lovely green grass and the pastures are about ready for turn-out without excess poaching.

You must have noticed the amazing range of bright greens on the mixed hedges and bushes, as well as the recent emergence of butterflies. The beautiful lemon-yellow brimstone that really stands out and the abundance of red admirals and peacocks.

Last week I was pleased to see SIX great white egrets on our roadside wetland. I have had odd ones before, but this was something special to behold as they frolicked about spreading their enormous white wings. There were also three little egrets there and they looked very small.

This morning I recorded a pair of grey partridges, a number of skylarks and I have a song thrush feeding young in my garden. The marsh harriers have returned from wintering in Africa and I have already seen the female carrying nest material. I also watched one chasing a buzzard off its territory.

There are some insects about now and I thought I would have seen a swallow, but not yet.

Peace in the Garden

There is peace in the garden;
a peace so deep and calm.
When my heart is troubled
it's like a soothing balm.

There is joy in my garden.
A joy that's always found
When my tasks have been accomplished, however hard the ground.

There is life in my garden;
a life that still goes on,
filling empty spaces
when older plants have gone.

There's glory in the garden
at every time of year:
spring; summer; autumn; winter,
that fills your heart with cheer.

So ever tend your garden,
its beauty to increase,
for in it you'll find solace
and in it you'll find peace...

(I thought I'd share this little verse, given to me by my late Grandad, Bill Herd, who loved his Wrangle garden)

Community Emergency Planning and Ready for Anything Emergency Volunteer Scheme

The Wrangle Parish Council are in the process of writing a revised Parish emergency plan in partnership with the Lincolnshire County Council and the Lincolnshire Resilience Forum (LRF).

An emergency/major incident is any event or circumstance (happening with or without warning) that causes or threatens death or injury, disruption to the community, or damage to property or to the environment and the response needed is such that it is beyond the normal service provision of the council and/or emergency services.

There is no statutory responsibility for communities to plan for, respond to, or recover from emergencies, however it is sensible to be prepared in order to be in a position to cope with any emergency (under the direction of the emergency services) to limit the impact and aid recovery.

The emergency plan will be a living document and will include a structured framework for use by the community in the event of an emergency situation. This may include the provision of warning and informing, evacuation support and the setting up and managing (temporarily) places of safety.

Members of the community can assist by notifying us of any skills they might have which they are prepared to volunteer in the event of an emergency and any equipment within the community which could be utilised to assist with the response.

For example, medically qualified, retired or existing emergency service workers, carers , veterinary, builder, carpenter, etc.

Equipment and resources such as tractors, heavy lifting gear, cutting equipment, pumps, ropes, ladders, mini buses / taxis, accommodation etc.

The plan will include vulnerable people / groups / establishments in the community to be in a position to assist these people quickly and efficiently.

Local people can volunteer to assist with the Lincolnshire Resilience Forum

The Lincolnshire Resilience Forum register and train volunteers in the 'Ready For Anything Volunteer Scheme'.

Volunteers can register to be called to assist in any emergency in Lincolnshire or just within the Wrangle and surrounding area.

Details of this scheme are available at www.lincolnshireresilienceforum.org

If anyone is able to assist and would like to volunteer to be included within the plan please contact the Parish Clerk:

Boston Borough Council Street Lighting

In 2016 the Parish Council agreed to pay for the electricity and maintenance of the Borough Council street lights (74 in Wrangle), the alternative was that the street lights would not be lit and eventually removed. The Parish Council paid for timers to be put on the street lights and have paid for electricity and maintenance since then. More recently the Borough Council have had an audit on the lights and have requested £13,500 from the Parish Council to pay for some street lights to be updated and an email has been received with an offer of a loan to pay for the street lights to be changed to LED's - this would save money on the electricity over a number of years.

The Parish Council agreed to ask for a quote for the change to LED to enable an informed decision to be made about a loan. The money requested to bring the street lights up to standard will also be taken into consideration when the LED quote has been received – it is felt that the Borough Council should pay for this.

Boston Borough Council – 50 years

Boston Borough Council is reaching a historic milestone as the authority marks its 50th year of serving the local community. The Borough Council was formed on 1st April 1974 following the Local Government Act of 1972 which led to the restructure of local government. The Act saw the number of councils in England reduce from 1,000 to 412 with Boston Borough created by the merger of the Municipal Borough of Boston and Boston Rural District. With the continuation of the Borough status, the new Boston Borough Council was able to continue the civic role of The Worshipful Mayor of Boston, which dates back to when Boston was an ancient borough in 1545.

Following the Local Government Act of 1972, the first Mayor of the newly instated Boston Borough Council was Peter Ellice Paine. Market stall erectors, John Hall and Dave Wilson are two of the longest serving employees of the council who have been with the authority for more than 50 years. There are not many people who can say they have worked for the same company for more than 50 years - it's something to be proud of when you think of their long service.
